& - first ever Mountain League Win

* Mountain League ~  Allegheny Division, 2010-11 * Mountain League ~  Allegheny Division 2011-12

In the 2010-11 and 2011-12 seasons the Lady Bison played in the Allegheny Division of the Mountain League. For 2010-11 the League involved twelve teams - Bald Eagle, Bellefonte, Central, Central Mountain, Clearfield, Huntingdon, Indian Valley, Juniata, Lewistown, Penns Valley, Philipsburg, Tyrone. That year they played each of the other 5 teams in their division twice, and the teams from the Nittany: Bald Eagle, Bellefonte, Indian Valley, Juniata, Lewistown & Penns Valley each once, Non League Curwensville twice, Non-League Du Bois, Punxs'y, Northern Cambria, Saint Marys each once for twenty-two total games in the regular season

For the 2011-12 season the league dropped to ten teams as Indian Valley and Lewistown merged into Mifflin County, got bumped to higher classification and left the league.

That year we played the remaining other four Allegheny Division teams and two teams from the Nittany Div. (Penns Valley & Central Mountain) each twice to amount to 12 games, played the remaining three Nittany teams each once to bring the total to 15, and tacked on seven additional games as shown above right to once again come to twenty-two contests in the regular season.

Beginning with the 2012-13 season the Mountain League * was now comprised of eight teams following the departure of Central Mountain and Juniata to other leagues.

To recap, the remaining teams are now Bellefonte, Central High, Clearfield, Huntingdon, Penns Valley, Philipsburg & Tyrone. The Lady Bison now play each of the other seven teams in the league twice to account for fourteen games, pick-up another six games from outside the league and been regularly starting the schedule with the pre-season Brookville tournament, still playing a total of twenty-two games before any post-season activity.
